Jury Project Evaluation Form

Dear Jurors:

Thank you again for your service as juror. Your input throughout the project and your feedback after the presentation are vital to the success of the project and to the Fellow's overall learning experience.

The Fellow will receive a summary of all jurors' evaluative feedback. Please evaluate the jury project according to the following criteria. Although you do not have to write comments for each criterion, the Fellows welcome comments in as many sections as you would like to address.

Appropriateness of the project to its intended purpose and site

Is the project feasible? What contribution does the project make to the community? To what extent does it celebrate, commemorate, or enhance some aspect of our collective being?

Excellent (~A) Very Good (~B) Average (~C) Poor (~D) Unacceptable (~E)

Comments:

Quality of presentation

How well did the essay portion of the project lay out the Fellow's goals and explain how the project would serve those goals? Was the essay well written, logical, and informative? Was the oral presentation a useful elaboration on—and not a simple restatement of—the ideas discussed in the essay? Did the Fellow make good use of visual aids (models, websites, etc.), as appropriate?

Excellent (~A) Very Good (~B) Average (~C) Poor (~D) Unacceptable (~E)

Jury Project Process

Did the Fellow keep you informed of his or her progress on the project throughout the year? Did he or she arrange meetings with you in a professional manner? Did the Fellow respond to your recommendations throughout the planning stages of the project in a professional way?

Excellent (~A) Very Good (~B) Average (~C) Poor (~D) Unacceptable (~E)
